PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, FRIDAY, AUGUST 9, 1901.

GIANTS' NEW PITCHER GOT IT GOOD AND HARD

FAST EXPRESS IN THE DITCH.

Nine Persons Injured in Wreck of the "Black Diamond" Limited on the Lehigh Valley Near Leroy.

(ily long distance telephone from heroy, N. Y., to The Evenium World.) Hello! Is this The Evening World?

This is the Gazette, Leroy, N. Y. 381 miles away. Can you hear me Yes, go on.

There has been a frightful railroad wreck near this town. The Black Diamond express, on the Lehigh Vallev, which left Buffalo at noon to-day and is due in New York at 10.08 tonight, was thrown from the tracks afterno i.

The chair car and observation coach

THE INJURED.

LUKE JOHNSON, Lakewood, N. J. Mrs. LUKE JOHNSON, Lakewood

F. M. CRANE, 205 Garfield place

street New York, Pullman porter. ing completely over.

Evening World-What was the cause of the wreck?

was one of the most miraculous occurrences in railroad history that the whole train did not go and kill many. umstances.

through this place at the rate of This was caused by the car turning about sixty miles an hour. It goes over and dropping them to the roof.

The injured were taken to the dewatch it.

There was a big crowd down today and the Black Diamond Express jured, none fatally. The injured was on time. Within ten rods of the station the watchers on the platform saw the last two cars leave the train

> The engine and the rest of the rain came to a sudden stop. The

The work of rescue was begun by car would be dead and many on the chair car. Much to the surprise of dows and that some of them tirely uninjured.

Most of thos who sustain juries were bruised about the head.

pot, where they were given medical which remained on the rails was placed on a side track, and preparations were made to take the wounded to Jersey City on the train that had been wrecked.

hree hours by the wreck.

STATEMENT OF COMPANY

The Lehigh Valley officials in this he accident this afternoon:
"At 12.53 P. M. to-day train No. 10, ust west of North LeRoy station, had bination Pullman and observation two barrons of the rear of the two barrons cars on the rear of the two barrons cars of the tw

Philadelphias Fell on Poor Johnny Deegan's Curves and Pounded Out Nine Runs in Three Innings.

th Race-Lord Quex 1, Ishtar 2, South Temple 3.

with Race-Uterp 1. Benham 2. Warren Point

At Pittsburg-Chicago, 4: Pittsburg.

CAPTURED

Fleeing Bettors Held matrimonial connections of the Shooks sented to Justice O'Gorman to-day that Back at the Pistol Point.

SOME BROKE THROUGH WALL AND ESCAPED.

Big Establishment in East Twenty third Street Was in Full Blast When Raiders Arrived.

A rail on an alleged pool-room at No. 166 East Twenty-third street was made ing party gained entrance a crowd was this afternoon by Supt. Hammond and seen going through a telephone booth. five of his men from the Parkhurst So- The detectives made a rush for the inclety, aided by three policemen from closure only to find it empty. Investi-the East Twenty-third stret police sta- gation disclosed a trap-door leading to

The place was found running in full blast, and after a lively scramble three warrants served on three of them. prisoners were captured.

be raided about 4 o'clock. 'The alleged hold court there, pool-room was on the second floor and the raiding party found their way wise only canvass cunningly covered with wall paper. This "wall" was quick-Middle West. "e"

Commands Public Confidence.

The Pennsylvania Railgoad, because it offers tion of her daughter's illness, unsurpassed service, between New York and the Middle West. "e"

The Lody will be taken to Middle West. "e"

AN OLD MARRIAGE TANGLE REVIVED.

Mrs. A. M. Palmer Brings Suit Against Son by Former Husband.

the peculiar story of the business and izations, sets forth in an affidavit preand Palmers, famous in the theatrical her son Albert borrowed sums of money world for years, is revived.

by her first nusband, Sheridan Shook, who was a partner of the theatrical firm of Shook & Palmer. About the time the firm broke up Mr.

and Mrs. Shook separated. Later Mrs. Shook married her husband's former partner, A. M. Palmer. It was said, the store below.

The men were taken to the East Hammond and his aids after securing Twenty-second stret station and a call the policemen, marched to the place to sent for Justice Jerome to come and city when, a year ago last fall, she be-

Gen. Mel May Be a Bunster.

Commands Public Confidence.

Through an action brought against Mrs. Palmer, who since became famou Albert M. Shook by Joseph H. Dillon, as the President of the Professional the assignee of Mrs. Laura A. Palmer, Woman's League and in similar organfrom her between Jan. 1, 1885, and Jan. Young Albert Shook, who is being 1, 1899, while living at her home in Stam sued for $10,736, is a son of Mrs. Palmer ford, Conn., and that he subsequent! entered the United States Navy as ar ordinary seaman, but disappeared from the United States cruiser Brooklyn on July 10 last while cruising in Australian waters. She says that no trace of him Justice O'Gorman, after reading the tinued to have a friendly regard for one snother.

Was said, evidence and affidavit in the case, granted Mr. Dillon an order directing service of the summons and complaint upon the son by publication.

through the liquor store. As the raid-

Wife of a Newspaper Editor Dies Suddenly at Her Home.

Mrs. John P. Warren died suddenly Probably 150 men were corralled, and ingside avenue. She was the daughter of a wealthy South Side resident of St Louis and was one of the belles of the came the bride of Mr. Warren, a wellknown newspaper man.

the raiding party round their way blocked by barried doors. While these being capped down, a big crowd inside was making a desperate struggle or dispersed hundreds of Boxers and to escape.

Mr. warren came to New York and been to New York and on Annew the Supreme Court, the body of Anne Miller, twenty-seven years old, of No. 306 East Fifty-fifth street, who died to escape. year, and Mrs. Warren's mother arrived, on July 26 last, will be disinterred toin the city a short time ago in anticipa The body will be taken to St. Louis Foul Play Suspected in Annie Miller's Death.

morrow

Amistant District-Attorney D. A. affidavite furnished by Detective Mq-

has secured evidence to show that the girl died from the results of an operation alleged to have been performed by a woman doctor. He also states that at the time of her death no report was made to the Corners' office, under whose jurisdiction the case would legally come. He also intimates there other mysterious elecumstance connected with Miss Miller's death.

WEATHER FORECAST.

hours ending 8 P. M. Saturday, Aug. 10. for New York City and vicinity: Pair to-night, a saturday partly cloudy, winds becoming fresh casterly.

Even the Pensimiat is pleased with the many pleasant and con-errived in Slowtown this morning full of tope and determination. They were cheerful over their big improvement in he double-header with Brooklyn yesterday and anxious for a chance to be re enged on the Quakers.

violent hands on Davis's men last week back hard. The Philadelphia team, how ever, is about the hardest nut in the last Friday. It lamed his shoulder and

Warner and Denzer were left behind

So the pitching staff consists of Mabackstop work must be done by Bowerman and Smith. Deegan, who held the believe we shall more than hold our own. Before Mr. Freedman sailed we had a frank taik. He asked me about the team's slump and I told him the reasons for it as I saw them. He did not say a word about a change in the management, but he did say he wanted to see the team play the game they are capable of. He certainly has the right to expect that, and I am prepared to take the blame if we don't make good."

Few Spectators.

Warner and Denzer Left Behind.

And this with the Quaker team second.

DETECTIVE MULCARE IS EXONERATED.

William J. Mulcare, the Central Office detective, who on July 30 shot Joseph Bulkley dead, after a quarrel, was exonerated this afternoon by a jury in Coroner Hart's court. The finding declares: Joseph Bulkley came to his death by a pistol shot fired by William Mulcare in defense of his own life, and we, the jury, therefore exonerate William J. Mulcare from all blame. Assistant District-Attorney Garvan with snow-white hair sliently wept in toast. the Coroner's court. She was the mother of Mulcare's victim. Beside her were her daughters, Mary Wyman and Margaret Doogan. Mrs. Bulkley is a

Acted in Self-Defense, but District-Attorney
Hopes to Have Him and strike Mulcare with it. Indicted for Murder

Assistant District-Attorney Garvan said he would present the case to the Grand Jury at once, and they would, doubtless, indict Mulcare for murder in the first degree.

Abraham Levy, of Levy & Unger, who represented Mlucare, said he would be produced whenever wanted.

Dressed in deep black, a little woman with snow-white hair silently wept in toast.

Saw the scaled.

When court reconvened in the afternoon Jonn Donahue was called to the stand. He works on the White Star line dock. He testified that he saw the came up to us and looked into our faces. Mr. Bulkley said: 'You'd better sit down and have a bit of beer.' The glasses were then filled and O'Donnell gave a toast. Then Mulcare gave an improper toast.

Then Mulcare gave an improper stand. He works on the White Star line dock. He testified that he saw the scaled to the stong. In think it was a glasses.

When court reconvened in the afternoon Jonn Donahue was called to the stand. He works on the White Star line dock. He testified that he saw the came. He came up to us and looked into our faces. Mr. Bulkley said: 'You'd better sit down hand have a bit of beer.' The glasses were then filled and O'Donnell gave a guild the star line dock. He testified that he saw the scaled to the stong and the works on the White Star line dock. He testified that he saw the street.

I saw Bulkley strike Mulcare in the face.' The glasses were then filled and O'Donnell gave a guild the street. The face will be star line dock. He testified that he saw the street.

I saw Bulkley strike Mulcare. The face.' The face.' he declared. Then Cudahy ran back to the stoog and got something-t face.' he declared. Then Cudahy ran back to the stoog and something-t face.' The face.' he declared. Then Cudahy ran back to the stoog and got something-t face.' he declared. Then Cudahy ran back to the stoog and something-time of the stoog and something the face.' he declared. Then Cudahy ran back to the stoog and something-time of the stand. He works on the stand. He works on the stand. He works on the st toast. Then Mulcare gave an improper toast.

"Burke and O'Donnell jumped up. Burke caught Mulcare by the collar and Mulcare struck O'Donnell across the Mulcare struck O'Donnell across the face and then drew his revolver.

"I saw him stagger. Cudahy and Bulkley were pushing him toward the alley. One man whom I do not know tried to pacify them. Right after that I heard a shot. I did not see the shoot-

Finds that in Killing he was about two doors. Bulkley run and Mulcare Joseph Bulkley He were her daughters. Mary Wyman and Margaret Doogan. Mrs. Bulkley is a widow and the dead man was her sole support.

Mrs. Hannivan, who rents the house at No. 41 West attreet where Bulkely and his friends were sitting, told her story.

ELMAR.

Cauley, of the East Pifty-first street where more ablack straw hat without came Mr. Edward Burke, a friend or mine for thritten years and boarder. And a decent gentleman he is. Then on the stops came Miss Annie Brett, a nice girl, and Mr. James Cudahy Dorn, J. C. Shannon, and make the post-mortem examination.

We were having a nice sociable time, Your Honor, when along came Mrs. Bulkley, Lord have merey on high post-mortem examination.

We were having a nice sociable time, Your Honor, when along came Mrs. Bulkley, Lord have merey on high post-mortem examination.

We were having a nice sociable time, Your Honor, when along came Mrs. Bulkley, Lord have merey on high post-mortem examination.

Detective McCauley alleges that he has secured evidence to show that the girl died from the results of an ocera.

FIGHT IN COURT.

HENRIETTA LIVINGSTON BAT-TLED WITH FOUR OFFICERS.

wenty years old, but who, her brother avere is only eighteen, was arraigned in officers to take the girl away. When is left for the present without a single the Yorkville Court before Magistrate they approached her she bit, scratched, banking institution through a ruling of Brain this afternoon, charged with beling wayward and incorrigible.

According to the brother, Michael Liv could do to take her away, although the Supreme Court of Sicaragua that the London Bank of Central America.

Limited, has no legal status in that of her on a second avenue car this morning, in company with a woman and an elderly man.

and Twenty-sixth street he went to his Automobile Ran Into Ditch and sister and told her that she must come home. She slapped his face. Policeman davan was going to take the girl Prince Albert of Beigium, nephew of in custody, when she withdrew a hair-pur me away." she screamed. "Wouldn't Plenrietta Livingston, who says she is that far you? I defy you!"

wenty years old, but who, her brother Magistrate Brann ordered the Court

she girl weighs well under a hundred girl's parents had her committed to the House of Mercy about two years ago. Then she was taken home again, but after two weeks she ran away again and was missing until he caught sight of her on a second avenue car this.

PRINCE IN WRECK.

cently Out of the House of Mercy.

She Disappeared from Her House and Was Discovered on Street by Her Brother, Who Caused Her Arrest.

King Leopold, had a narrow secape while riding in a motor yesterday.

Magistrate Brann asked the girl what she had to say.

"I won't be put away, and you can't except some bruises."

Mearngus Has No Banks. WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.- Nicaragua